Joan Trumpauer Mulholland

Her 1961 Jackson, Mississippi mugshot is one of the most well known photos in American history. Arrested there for her Civil Rights activism, it was just one of over 50 sit-ins and demonstrations including the Freedom Rides, the Jackson Woolworth's Sit-in, the March on Washington, the Meredith March and the Selma to Montgomery March in which Joan participated.

Her path has crossed with some of the biggest names in the Civil Rights Movement: Martin Luther King, Jr., Medgar Evers, Fannie Lou Hamer, John Lewis, Diane Nash and Julian Bond to name a few.

Justice & Advocacy Team will be offering another session of “PROPHETIC FAITH, Exploring Social Justice Advocacy As a Congregation” in the early fall.

This is a seven-part workshop that examines the scriptural imperative for how church and politics can and should work together. We plan to begin the week of September 20th.

Exact date and time will be tailored to availability of the group. Please contact Penny Adams or Karen Hardison if you are interested in more information.

Prayer Vigil for City, Commonwealth, and Country
